Public Speaking

Pitch Your Passion

Saturday, Nov. 20 • 4pm

Voice what cause you're passionate about in a 5-minute pitch in front of other teens and local politicians! The teen audience will anonymously vote for a "winning" cause that will turn into a future community service project. Grades 8-12. Presenters must register at lajollalibrary.org/events and note the proposed cause in the comments section for approval.

Technology

Coding Workshops

Hands-on Technology teaches teens Python coding and robotics from 10:30-12:30pm on select Saturdays. Grades 5-10. Register at lajollalibrary.org/events

Robotics & Coding • Nov. 20

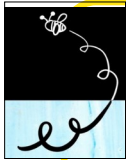

Literature

Teen Book Buzz

Saturday, Nov. 13 • 2pm

Talk about whatever you're reading with other teens. Any book in any genre counts! There will be an opportunity to create a "bookstagram" of the book with the most buzz and receive a free YA book to keep! In partnership with Warwick's. Grades 6-12.

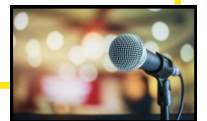

Expression

Teen Open Mic Night

Saturday, Dec. 3 • 5pm

Play the piano or guitar? Have a standup comedy or something else up your sleeve? Take a turn presenting or simply attend. Regardless, be entertained! BYO instrument, except for piano. Grades 8-12.

Get Involved

Teen Council

Saturday, Nov. 6 • 3pm

Inform teen library programming, help with library displays, and learn about service-hour opportunities. Grades 7-12. Email GrahamK@sandiego.gov to sign up.

Give Back

Deck the Halls

Saturday, Dec. 3 • 4pm

Help decorate the youth areas in the Library. There is no such thing as too much holiday cheer!

Math & Reading Buddies

Mondays • 4pm-5pm

Teens drop in to read with kids of all ages or help them with math.
